Dear Madam, Dear Sir,

In accordance with the "Terms of Use"
(<http://www.newworldgrid.com/lang/en-us/virtual-world/rules>) parents, legal guardians or organizations responsible for children must file an application to Directors of New World Grid virtual world, agreeing to allow the minor to connect to the service.

The minor is under the responsibility of the legal representative who commits to accompany him/her during his/her connection to the virtual world. In no case, the Association Virtus could be held liable for the use made by the minor, the content accessed by the minor, or for any other interaction with users.

Indeed, the Association Virtus is only acting as a service provider and host, and although very careful to the respect of the community standards and rules and to minors who might be connected to the virtual world, we can't ensure any warranty.

To allow administrators to treat your application, thank you for sending us:

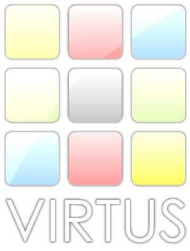

- The present form completed
- The Information Form completed
- The identity documents of the legal representative as well as of the minor

The administrators reserve themselves the right to contact you by phone in order to check the source and the provided information.

I, the undersigned (either parent or legal guardian or organization .....
